

HOST THE PERFECT GAMES NIGHT!

Board games are a great way to spend enjoyable and valuable time with the little ones, with the added benefit of skill development through concentration, communication and competition!

Tip one: Plan your game

Have an idea about what you're going to play and ensure your games are prepared - that they have the right pieces and batteries (if required).

Tip two: Involve everyone

The key to the perfect games night is to ensure everyone joins in. Make sure your teams are balanced with children and adult. If the game allows, a 'parent vs kids' session always makes for a great competition!

Tip three: Don't be restricted with time

Games night can be any time of the day and any day of the week! If it's wet, cold or miserable outside, it's the perfect time to get together indoors.
